Dear Mr. Blackford,

It was kind and thoughtful of you to copy and send the fascinating old account of the "Gunpowder Plot". I had long forgotten this. I don't think I've thought of it since school days so long ago.

You have an interesting and valid comparison. These things were to serve similar purposes and, in fact, did.

The plot to kill Fodas I had forgotten if I ever knew it.

How history does repeat itself.

Again, my thanks for your thoughtfulness.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
